Other May notes: As also mentioned in last month's report, on May 1 Department personnel participated in the construction of the Habitat for Humanity House project underway on Park Street. On May 5, personnel and equipment participated in the annual Chamber of Commerce Business Expo conducted on the parking lot of the Loma Linda Plaza, across Barton Road from City Hall. On May 18, our personnel and equipment were a major focal point during the annual Loma Linda University Children's Hospital's "Children's Day" activities conducted in the area between the Dental School and the University Church. On May 22, our personnel participated in the picnic sponsored by LLCCP at the Mission Trails development on Mission Road. On May 31, Department personnel were pleased to witness badge ceremony in front of the Fire Station, where Jeff Roddy, a long-term member of the Department, was awarded a gold badge in recognition of his promotion from Captain to Battalion Chief. Congratulations Jeff!
